

TO DISCUSS SATELLITE

Phillip Knox is to speak on Sky and Space Objects Wednesday, October 16, 7:45 at the Civic Auditorium in a screen presentation titled "The Soviet Moon — Will Space Ships and Space Stations Soon Be Seen in Our Evening Sky?" His Sunday evening presentation, October 13, is to be "Sun, Moon and Stars Broadcasting in 1957."

Phillip Knox, noted American astronomer lecturer comes to Torrance twice this week is well qualified to show the latest in astronomical findings. A direct descendant of the famous John Knox of Scotland, Knox is a very talented orator in his field. His illustrated screen presentations with Mount Palomar's latest photographs promise to be timely and educational to young and old. He is known in America as "Harmonizer of Science and Religion." Mr. Knox's series is sponsored by the South Bay area Seventh Day Adventist churches and is free to the public. Glenn Goffar, director, Henry Meissner, music director.

Self-Service Clothing Store Opens in Downtown Torrance

The letters C.G.C. blazed another niche in the progressive development of downtown Torrance last Friday. This unique store on the corner of Sartori and El Prado sts. opened its doors to eager throngs who came to take advantage of the C.G.C. Self-Service Policy with its tremendous savings on quality merchandise.

A spokesman for the C.G.C. group issued the following statement at Friday's opening. "We are indeed grateful for this initial response which has already far exceeded all previous estimates. We surveyed many areas as a potential site for the store, but ultimately decided on Torrance because of its rapid growth and long-range planning for the future.

"We are justly proud of our self-service policy with its 20 per cent and 25 per cent savings on fine clothing which we pass along to the public. We pledge ourselves to a continuing goal of the maximum in clothing savings to women, men and children. We invite everyone to come see for themselves—compare our values and then watch C.G.C. grow as Torrance grows."

Anza School Slates First PTA Meeting

Monday morning at 9 a.m. 19 spaceships' blasted off from Anza school, each one shooting for the moon. Every mother and father who joins the PTA will give their child's spaceship the power to shoot closer to its destination. The deadline for spaceships to reach the moon is October 16 and we are hoping they will reach their destination with 100 per cent membership.

Mrs. Ralph Johnston, ways and means chairman, reported that our recent rag drive was very successful and that more than 1½ tons of rags were brought to school by the children.

Plans are being made for the Anza carnival that will be held on Halloween. There will be booths, a country store and games for the children to play. Roving judges will award prizes for the costumes in various categories. The student body will select the name for the carnival.

Anza school, which opened its doors in January of 1957 will hold its first PTA meeting on October 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. There will be the regular business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Gordon Stephens, and the principal, R. C. Shaner will introduce the faculty. The newly formed Mother Singers under the capable leadership of Mrs. Kay Hoalst and accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Petrie will make their debut.

Shaner will discuss the improvements and modifications of progress reports recently adopted by the board of education. This is to be followed by a question and answer period. Refreshments will be served and child care will be provided.

EL CAMINO GRID QUEEN—Mimi Gogian, 19-year-old coed from Torrance, was crowned Grid Queen of El Camino College Friday night. Miss Gogian and her two princesses, Paula Daniels, left, and Sally Ann Blaine, right, were chosen by the Associated Men Students from a slate of 12 candidates. The royal court will appear Saturday evening between halves of the Santa Monica-El Camino football game in the Warrior stadium. The contest will mark the opening of the 1957 Metropolitan Conference season. A graduate of St. Anthony's High School in Long Beach, the Grid Queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gogian, with whom she resides. An elementary education major, she plans to continue her education at the University of Southern California after completing lower-division work at El Camino.

Church Films Will Be Seen On Television

A new set of films in the series "How Christian Science Heals," the official program of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, is being released for public television showing at this time. In Southern California these programs will be viewed over television stations KABC, Los Angeles, KFSD, San Diego and KERO, Bakersfield. Some 200 television stations will carry the programs across the nation.

The scope of subjects includes such programs as "Turning Failure into Success," "The Spiritual Meaning of Baptism," "Some Answers for Young People," "Correcting Injustice through Prayer." Among the healings to be described by those who have experienced them are the overcoming of alcoholism, the healing of tuberculosis and cancer, of grief, of arthritis, and of various other conditions.

The programs will follow the format, which has been established, of a discussion between those who have experienced the healings and a moderator. Moderators have been chosen from various sections of the United States, and include Enid Bennett Niblo, William Hawks, Richard Glendon, Charles L. Reilly and George Ward of Southern California; Frances Tutt and Wilson Riley of Missouri; Maria Soubler and Paul Erickson of Illinois, and Inman H. Douglass from Washington, D. C.
